Claims 41-43 and new claims 48-52 have been withdrawn as being directed to a non-elected species.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 9, 10, and 35-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over of Schade.

With respect to claim 9, Schade discloses a filtering method including the steps of continuously regenerating a sand bed under aerobic conditions (the aerobic conditions being provided by air lift 17) while simultaneously filtering contaminants from waste water flowing through the sand bed. Schade fails to specify an iron oxide coated sand bed. It is well known in the art that water can contain iron and iron oxide originating from ground water sources or iron pipes and tanks for handling the water. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art that the filter of Schade would include a reactive iron oxide coated sand when filtering water containing iron or iron oxide since the filter would capture iron granules and iron oxide contained in such water.

Concerning claim 35, the process suggested by Schade would inherently regenerate reactive surfaces on the iron oxide coated sand bed to which contaminants can bond during the regeneration step in which the particles are conveyed through the air lift device 17 (see FIG. 1 of Schade).

Regarding claim 36, the process suggested by Schade discloses filtering solid forms of the contaminants with a sand bed and regenerating reactive surfaces on the iron oxide coated sand bed to which contaminants can bond during the regeneration step in which the particles are conveyed through the air lift device 17.

As to claim 37, the process suggested by Schade discloses removing at least a portion of the bonded and filtered contaminants from a vessel that defines the sand bed (e.g., via the withdrawal tube 35 disclosed by Schade shown in FIG. 1).

Regarding claim 38, Schade discloses removing the portion (e.g., via withdrawal tube 35) from a majority of the water.

Claims 9 and 10 are again provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being anticipated by claims 8 and 10 of Application Serial No. 11/171,002. As pointed out in the previous Office action, claims 9 and 10 of this application do not preclude an ozone oxidation treatment, these instant claims are deemed to be encompassed by claims 8 and 10 of Application Serial No. 11/171,002.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Omum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969). A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b)

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
